Park County Budget Update

Park County Commissioners recessed the July 25th Public Hearing for the FY25 Preliminary Budget. The hearing will be continued on Friday, August 23rd at 9:00 a.m. in the Commissioner Chambers.

The FY25 Preliminary Budget may be accessed on the Park County homepage, parkcounty.org.

The Montana Department of Revenue ("DOR") provides 2024 Certified Taxable Valuation information to the counties on August 1st, or within a few days. The taxable values are used to set levies across all entities in Park County. The County will provide consolidated levies from across the county to the DOR by September 9th. Entities such as fire agencies and schools provide information to the Finance Department. The Treasurer and DOR work together to update the levies for the year.

FINAL BUDGET PUBLIC HEARING

Park County Commissioners will meet on Thursday, September 5th, 2024 at 9:00 a.m. in the Commission Chambers in the City/County Complex at 414 E. Callender Street for the purpose of adopting Park County's final budget and fixing the tax levies for the 2024/2025 fiscal year. The final budget will be adjusted from the preliminary budget. Starting August 28th, the budget is open to inspection by any person and is available for public review during regular business hours in the Park County Accounting Office. Any taxpayer or resident may appear at the hearing in person or virtually and be heard for or against on any part of the final budget. Written comments on the final budget may be submitted either in person or by mail to the Park County Commissioners, 414 East Callender Street, Livingston, MT 59047, until September 5, 2024, at 9:00 a.m.

Wildfire and Emergency Preparedness for the Home

By Dann Babcox, Fire Chief
Park County Rural Fire District #1

When considering the safety and protection of yourself and your homes, these are some pointers and recommendations for the current fire season or for any emergency.

1. Have a generator big enough to power your well and have an electrician wire in a port near your breaker panel for easy swap from the power grid to the generator. Consult with an electrician about the proper size generator for the well pump and for the amount of electricity you need for your home.
2. Have a sprinkler kit for use around your buildings to turn on if a fire breaks out anywhere near your home. Turn them on immediately when you know of a fire that could get to your property.
3. Have a go bag with your important documents, prescriptions, and must have items ready during the fire season.

4. Have an escape plan and a meeting place predetermined so that family members can meet if unable to communicate via phone.
5. Clear all vegetation and combustible materials from around the buildings you do not want to start on fire.
6. Know and understand the difference between fireproof and fire resistant. Know the limits of the fire-resistant materials you are using. When it comes to construction, very few things are fireproof.
7. Know your surroundings and mark your escape route. When a fire is happening, the smoke will disorient your position, and family members may not be able to find the way when vision has been reduced.
8. Have a plan for your animals and act sooner rather than later. If it's going to take time, then make sure you're giving yourself plenty of time to do whatever is needed for the protection of your animals.
9. Practice, practice, practice!!!! Especially if you have children, imagine scenarios that could happen, not just fire, that will require an emergency exit or action on your part and share it all with your family or occupants of your property. Give everyone a job to do and go over it until it becomes second nature. Do not practice until you get it right, PRACTICE UNTIL YOU CANNOT GET IT WRONG.
10. Make the required arrangements for disabled or infirmed family members. When possible, have a written list of medications or medical needs in case you get separated from them.

11. Evacuations are not a joke. Do it for the good of your family. If you are advised to leave then leave, turn on your sprinklers before and go to the meeting place you and your family have chosen.

12. A charged cell phone is not an emergency plan, it is a small tool to use within your plan.

How do I...view my property tax bill?

"How do I...?" is a recurring feature of the newsletter that provides readers with information on navigating local government.

To view your property tax bill online:

- Visit <https://itax.tylertech.com/ParkMT/> or click on "2023 Tax Bill" on the Park County homepage www.parkcounty.org
- Only one criterion is required to search (e.g. Property Tax ID, Owner Name, Property Address, or Geo Code).
- For owner name searches, it is important to search LastName FirstName. For example, Jones Steve.
- On the results page, you can view your tax bill, geo code, property tax ID, and a tax breakdown.
