

Park County Flooding –Evening Update – 10 PM on June 15, 2022

For immediate release: June 15, 2022

Media contact:

Whitney Bermes, incident public information officer

whitney.bermes@gallatin.mt.gov

Cell: 406-595-8963

Updates are posted throughout the day at the Park County Flooding – June 2022 Facebook page.

Evening update

Personnel started conducting damage assessments of property and infrastructure throughout the county. This will support efforts to get a Federal Disaster Declaration to help with recovery efforts.

City officials are commencing clean-up on the southeast side of Livingston.

Please keep a safe distance from restricted areas such as bridges, washouts and river banks.

Currently, river traffic is illegal.

Roads and bridges opened today:

US 212 from Cooke City to Silver Gate – the road is now open from Cody, WY to Silver Gate

Carters Bridge

All open roads between Livingston Gardiner are for local and essential traffic only.

Continued Closures:

Hwy 89 N from Interstate 90 to Convict Grade Road

Hwy 89 S from Emigrant to Point of Rocks

9th St. Island in Livingston

Water Update:

A “Boil Water Advisory” is in place in Gardiner, Cooke City, and Silver Gate. A rolling boil for one minute is recommended before consuming. Retail food establishments in these communities will serve prepackaged food and drink only. No open food or open drinks may be served due to risk of water contamination.

If you are on a private well and have questions about water safety or testing please call the Park County Health Department 406 222-4145.

Receive real-time emergency alerts on your phone are available by texting your zip code to 888777. This will enter you into the Nixle Emergency System.

If you would like to volunteer for the recovery effort or if you need help with shelter, food, etc., call 211.

For all non-emergency questions related to road and bridge closures and safety, call 406-222-4131. This hotline will be open 8 AM to 10 PM.

The Livingston Food Resource Center is offering hot lunch at their location, 202 S 2nd Street, Livingston. This is available to anyone 12:30 – 1:30 PM.